In pursuance to the orders of Supeme Court of India and as per the guidelines/instructions of the Hon'ble Central Empowered Committee as well as the instructions of the Prl. Chief Conservator of Forests, A. P., Hyderabad in the ref. 4th cited, you are requested to furnish the documentary evidences issued by the sister department permissions for regularization of the peeling machine or any other machinery which are comes under the definition of the Sawmill in your unit. And also to ascertain whether the wood based industry was established prior to the Hon'ble Supreme Court orders or not. Further, you are also advised to submit such authenticated documents issued by the concerned departments pertaining to your unit as mentioned in the said notice, within one week of this Notice to take necessary further action on it as per the Hon'ble Superme Court orders. And also Final Notice was issued to you to make any representation along with authenticated supported documents and an opportunity of being heard if you so desire will also be given to you on or before 15-4-2013 vide ref. 7th cited.

Further, it is also informed that the said notice and final notices were acknowledged by you on 23-3-2013 & 14-4-2013 respectively and you have submitted your reply on 2-4-2013 to the notice with authenticated documents issued by the other sister departments as requested from this office through the ref.6th cited. After examining your reply, it is noticed that the establishment of your wood based industry is prior to the Hon'ble Supreme Court orders if the certificates produced by you are genuine. Further you have obtained permission from District Industries Department (Permanent Regn. No. 281609495, dated 8-4-2002), Factories Department (L. No. 10878, Regn. No. R. 69216, dated 8-8-2002) and Commercial Department (Ref. No. VJ2/08/1/1797, dated 18-9-2001) prior to Supreme Court orders. From this permissions itself, it can be concluded that your industry was started prior to the Hon'ble Supreme Court orders if the certificates produced are gunuine.

However, there is no prior approval of Hon'ble CEC permission for running of your Unit. Deliberate running of wood based industry without permission / approval from the Hon'ble C.E.C. is a serious offence and also violation of the orders of the Supreme Court of India. Hence, the wood based industry operated by you in the name of Agarwal Plywood Industries, Surampalli Village, Gannavaram Mandal, Krishna District should stop immediately until the permission obtained from the Hon'ble C.E.C., New Delhi which is against the Hon'ble Supreme Court orders and CEC directions, otherwise as per Hon'ble Supreme Court orders and A. P. Saw Mill Rules, further action will be taken.

G.VIJAY KUMAR,
Divisional Forest Officer,
Krishna Division,
Vijayawada.
